- Frige - Goddess of Love

is totally unacceptable for there is only one God!

Mission Notes

The target, King Ethelbert, is the King of Kent, a powerful kingdom in Britain. His wife, Bertha, is a Catholic and her father is a very powerful King in France.

We believe that Etherlbert wants to make a strong connection with the King in France and is happy for his wife to be Catholic, even though Ethelbert isn't, so that he can form a relationship with the powerful father.

We therefore believe that he will be quite easily swayed into becoming a Christian. If you succeed, the rest of the Kingdom of Kent will follow him. Build monasteries before you go and the rest of the country will become Christian shortly after that. Plus, if any of those northern Europeans come to our shores, they will be met with the holy word of God and we will turn them from their pagan ways!

Good luck in your mission... and let us bring Christianity to these heathen lands!

Godspeed Secret Agent Augustine!
